About The Green House

The Green House Bristol has been providing free, specialist therapy to survivors of sexual abuse for over 35 years. We currently see over 100 adults and children every week in our therapy centre in St Paul's, our outreach centres and currently also in remote therapy.

Over the next 3 years, The Green House plans to increase and diversify our service offers to survivors, with a hope that anyone in Bristol or surrounding areas, who has experienced sexual abuse can access quality, trauma-informed services.

About the role

This is an exciting opportunity to join our Adults Service Counselling team as an Assistant Clinical Lead, offering estimated 5 therapy sessions per week (currently at least some of these will be delivered remotely), supporting and managing a team of specialist therapists, and assisting the Clinical Lead with service development and innovations in line with The Green House strategy.

The successful candidates will be reflective and empathetic with experience and knowledge of the issues faced by people who have experienced sexual abuse. They will also be organised, and have the skills needed to manage and support a skilled team.

We are looking for two experienced counsellors or psychotherapists with an interest in managing and developing quality services, to join our growing team at this exciting time. For now, this role will be a mixture of home-working and office-based, at our therapy centre in St Agnes Lodge, St Pauls or at one of our outreach centres.
